Hi,

The claims were processed in our claims processing system and also processed in a separate system that processes payments, EOBs etc... All the claims that were processed in both systems and were just waiting for the funds in order to release payment, need to be reprocessed in that system and then reprocessed in the claims system. I should have an answer for you today or tomorrow.

Respectfully,

Avrumi Friedman

Any update? The Providence Group needs the information immediately. I thought the claims were already processed based on prior conversations with you.

Avrumi,

Any progress? The Providence Group needs the records now. Leading Edge, in its fiduciary capacity, is preventing further payment of participant claims. Is Leading Edge going to provide the information voluntarily?
